From County Meath In Ireland To Outback Birdsville

South Australian based Irish jockey Emily Finnegan is now part of Aussie bush racing history after winning last Saturday's Birdsville Cup aboard the Phillip Stokes trained Neodium.

Then just a few hours later it was a case of from "Kadina to Menangle" when the Tyson Linke Kadina bred and owned mare Encipher knocked off the biggest names in the sport to win the world's richest harness race, the $2.1 Million TAB Eureka. Encipher has now raced 27 times for 17 wins plus ran a world record time and became the first pacer in the world to win a $2.1 Million race.

The fall out of now famous Women's World Cup victory kiss by Luis Rubiales the now suspended President of the Spanish soccer federation has grown bigger by the day. Now the winning Women's World Cup coach Jorge Vilda has even been fired !! The backlash of this controversy has now deepened so wide that Rubiales could even face a jail term with the player in question Jenni Hermoso being supported by the prosecutor's office with a new Spanish law eliminated the difference between "sexual harassment" and "sexual assault," sanctioning any unconsented sexual act.

The J.O. whisper is if all falls into place for the horse Desert Hero next start the horse which is owned by King Charles III and bred by the late Queen Elizabeth II, will front up for this years Melbourne Cup and most likely the Royal owners !!
