Alex Carey— Code Switch—Now Equals World Record !!

AFL legend Kevin Sheedy recommended that Alex Carey best switch sporting codes from AFL to a cricket career . Well the rest of this code switching story is all history now for the Loxton born Alex Carey who has now played 30 Test Matches for Australia plus he has already taken 107 catches and 12 stumpings while being behind the stumps . Carey has also played 72 ODI games , 80 FC games and 120 LA games for a total of 623 catches and 47 stumpings , Also Carey has made a century with the bat at these four levels with top scores of 111 , 106 , 143 and 128 not out . Early in the week Carey has also recorded a world record-equalling eight catches in an innings for South Australia in its domestic one-day cup match with Queensland. After the poms declared Carey “public enemy No 1” against England in last year's Ashes this current world record outstanding form surely answers all the critics at all levels .

LOZ THE STATS MAN

By: Lawrie Colliver

It's crunch time for the Redbacks as their Shield match starts today against Queensland. They've lost Henry Hunt and Liam Scott to injury which gives Tea Tree Gully's Kyle Brazell a debut as opener while Jake Fraser-McGurk will join him at the top of the order.

Brazell recently made 103 for the Gullies against Kensington, while it's a radical decision to open up with the hard-hitting batsman, who played a great little knock in the third

ODI in Canberra against the West Indies. I guess they have no choice in what is a must win game for both sides and if it comes off the Redbacks will look like geniuses.

Glenn Maxwell played one of the innings of his life last week in the second T20 against the West Indies, showing all the great skills of modern batting it what was an entertaining innings. West Indies came to play as well making 200 in each game and will be a handful in the upcoming T20 World Cup in the middle of the year.

The Aussies head to NZ shortly for the start of the tour there on Feb 21, Travis Head will be on the plane and hoping to get himself going again after making a pair in the Gabba Test. It will be an entertaining three weeks of cricket, with three T20s and two Tests, with the Wellington Test pretty much sold out.

Did you hear about the fan who just bought Taylor Swift's hair comb on Ebay? It's his closest brush with fame.
If Taylor Swift fans are called Swifties, what do we call Carrie Underwood's fans? Undies.

Taylor Swift stumbles upon a Time Machine. She accidentally goes back in time and wanders into a university. As she's looking around an older man walks in talking to someone about how galaxies are moving away from us. The man sees her and asks, "Who might you be, young lady?"

"I'm Taylor Swift," she answers, and he is about to introduce himself when she holds up her hand to stop him. "I knew you were Hubble when you walked in."

What did the mechanic do when the owner took his car to the shop after it started making this whining noise?

Turns out all he had to do was take the Taylor Swift album out.!!
