“ Never Forget Your Roots In Any Sport “

With all the hype and modern day marketing that is all part of high level sport , never turn your back on how such events and Champions got there in the first place . Tomorrow's $5 Million Golden Slipper is a prime example with Gai Waterhouse aiming to make it her 8th slipper winner as a trainer . It all started back in 1957 when the legendary Todman saluted in the very first run Slipper. Along the way there has been so many classic Champions win the Slipper including the Mighty Manikato (pictured) who was the grandson of the Champion South Australian Matrice (pictured) winning the 1953 Fulham Park Plate by 18 lengths at Victoria Park . The Matrice Stakes will also be run at Morphettville tomorrow !!
