Winter Watch Treats In Australia !!

We did state last week we were hoping we would still be talking about Alex De Minaur this week. The good news is yes Alex made it thru to the quarter finals at Wimbledon but the worst rotten bad luck of injury forced him to pull out of the competition. Alex's quarter finals clash with Djovic was expected to be a classic and the way Alex was playing at Wimbledon it would have been no shock to see him go the whole way . Hopefully he can recover and win a grand slam event in the near future . There certainly is plenty of International Sport to watch right the way thru to Monday morning with the Wimbledon finals and Euros soccer final between England and Spain.
