“ ELSPANNA ”

What a massive week it was for Spanish sports fans and Spanish golfer Sergio Gracia has pretty well summed up what happened in just 24 hours regarding Spanish sport.

"Today, in my opinion, is one of the best days in the history of Spanish sport," he wrote on Instagram. "Having won four major titles in the space of a few hours, the whole country is celebrating". We wonder how long the recovery was or in fact if anyone has yet recovered from the celebrations, but after winning the 2024 Euro Final against England, and the Albacete Bullring will never be the same after the frenzied fans flocked there to watch a live broadcast. Then the Spanish SailGP season winning four grand final in San Francisco. There was no resting as Sergio Garcia celebrates his first LIV Golf title with a playoff victory at Andaluia in Sotogrande, Spain. Then Carlos Alacaz celebrates his victory over Novak Djokovic in the men's singles final at Wimbledon.

Then sharing his social media, Alacaz shared a photo of himself lifting the championship trophy alongside the caption: 'We're still dreaming!!'.
