The Cox Plate At The Valley Is All Set To Rumble The Racing Jungle !!!

Everest Day at Randwick was an outstanding atmosphere with a crowd of almost 50,000 showing the rest of world how to sing and dance to the Neil Diamond classic "Sweet Caroline". The standard of the racing was world class and Australia's latest sprinter star Bella Nipotina deserves her crown for her honesty over the last couple of years. Veteran broadcaster the Glenelg based Bruce McAvaney said on Channel 7 it may have been "the best Everest yet". "Magnificent race! Incredible, classic run up the straight between two wonderful horses," McAvaney said. We also wonder what the thoughts of Peter V'Landys were when he realised the $7 Million prize money was going to Victorian based AFL's Michael Christian !! Just out of interest we are reasonably well placed with some of our Spring Racing Multi combinations — Goldrush Guru's victory last Saturday certainly started a few of our multi's rolling, good news is that we still have quite a few live runners, In the Cox Plate we have Pride Of Jenni $4.50, Docklands $21 now $16 and Broadsiding $6. Alive in The Golden Eagle we have Tom Kitten $26 & $20 now $11 & Southport Tycoon $8. We got $40 about Big Swinger now $16 in the Coolmore. In the Vic Derby we have Politely Dun $13 now $11, Scary $13 & Swiftflacon $9 now $8. In the Melbourne Cup Point King has remained solid at $12 & plus Warp Speed $15.
