It was another week of good news if you are an Australia or South Australia supporter, with both teams having solid victories. The Aussies won the second Test convincingly in Galle, while SA completed a Shield and One-day Cup double in Perth.

The Test outcome wasn't a shock, while the effort of Alex Carey to peel off a brilliant 156 was one of the highlights of the summer. He played sensibly early in his innings and then blossomed in the final session of day two to score 90 as Australia took control of the match.

Carey batted five because Josh Inglis had been off the field with a crook back for too long on day one to bat in the top six and hopefully it will shut up those critics who still have it in their mind that Inglis is a better option as a Test keeper.

In one of the more remarkable games of Shield cricket, South Australia won well inside two days in Perth, bowling out WA for just 120 and 64. After an even team bowling effort in the first innings, Nathan McAndrew took 7-11 to well and truly towel the Sandgropers up. The WACA pitch was a shocker, seaming everywhere with balls flying off a length. Clearly the pitch was prepared with a result in mind, and this time it was the visitors who benefited.

The One-day cup win on Thursday by SA in the West puts them in the Final on March 1. A win v Tasmania on Feb 23 will guarantee hosting rights, and I have been assured that match will be played on Adelaide Oval. Credit goes to Liam Scott who was Man of the match as he continues his development into a fine all-rounder. He made 47 to ensure SA got to 9-208 and then took 3-16 off eight overs to help clean them up for 164 and in doing so gain a bonus point win. The Shield game v Tasmania starts Tuesday at Adelaide Oval, another win will almost certainly put them in the final. The lads are on a roll – keep going!!

LIV Golf will rock at the Grange Golf Club until Sunday Night , the Event was recently named the World's Best Golf Event for the second year in a row at the World Golf Awards .
